1. In early August 1950, a KBW unit (Corps of Internal Security) was billeted on the northern outskirts of Radom (R 52/Q 19), on the western side of the road to Warsaw. Garages formed part of the quarters. Some of the officers and NCOs of this unit had previously been seen in Kielce (R 51/U 73).*
2. Opposite the billets, between the roads to Warsaw and Kozienice (R 52/L 31) was a large barracks installation whose buildings were used either as dwellings or by the arms factory in Radom. Prior to November or December 1949 the barracks were occupied by a light artillery regiment. Dependents of NCOs of this unit had left for Stettin (O 54/Q 55). In this connection the refugee mentioned a 76th Regiment. **
3. Headquarters of the Polish Security Police (UB) were on the northern side of Zeromskiego Street west of Pierackiego Street.
